Worship—March 4 @ 10a.m.—The Stage @ Island Park

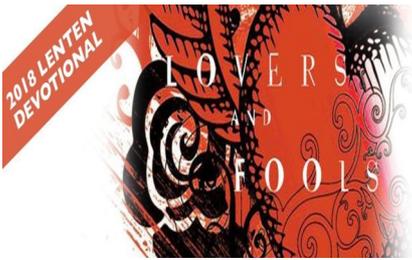

This Sunday we celebrate the covenant between God and Abram & Sarai, As they find their purpose they receive their authentic names.

As they realize that their legacy will be as vast as the night sky, we learn of the vastness of God's love.

Everyone is welcome.

Lovers & Fools

The UCC Still-Speaking Writers have published a new Lenten Devotional: Lovers & Fools. We are reminded we spend our days worshipping a God in love with weakness; following a foolish savior, even to the cross.

Join us on Saturday mornings, through March 31 at 8:30a.m. We will get together in the deli area of Cashwise at 1401 33rd St. S, Fargo, just off 13th Ave S, to reflect on the readings together. It is a great way to deepen your faith, and get to know your friends from People's UCC.

We had a great turn-out last week, and look forward to having you join us.

Celebrating together on April 1 at 10a.m. at the Stage at Island Park.

Join us!

Native American Christian Ministry

Pastor Grace is on the board of the Native American Christian Ministry. This ministry brings together the Native Spiritual tradition and the Gospel of Jesus.

We've been invited to help support the ministry by providing paper goods for the meals the participants share as part of worship. Needed are cups, plates, napkins, and utensils. Bring them any Sunday to worship. Thanks for your support.

One Great Hour of Sharing, as part of Our Churches Wider Mission, is the special mission offering of the United Church of Christ that carries God's message of love and hope to people in crisis. The UCC works with international partners to provide sources of clean water, food, education and health care, small business micro-credit, advocacy and resettlement for refugees and displaced persons, and emergency relief and rehabilitation. OGHS also supports domestic and international ministries for disaster preparedness and response.

We will receive this offering on March 11. You may also donate on-line at https://transactions.ucc.org/CampaignForm/UCChrist/one_great_hour_of_sharing.

Grace Notes

“No matter who you are or where you are on life’s journey, you’re welcome here.” - United Church of Christ

This statement from the United Church of Christ took on an even deeper meaning last Sunday. Not certain that all our driveways would be dug out, we opted to cancel our worship service at the Stage at Island Park.

However, we did have church. Right on Facebook. It was an interesting experience, not without its glitches. But we were able to gather, and we prayed together, encountered scripture together. Turns out, no matter where you are when it’s time for church, you’re welcome.

I have to admit, I missed being with everyone, face-to-face. But it is good to know, that no matter where we are, we can still be together, in spirit and in cyberspace.

By the way, the video is still on Facebook. If you want to introduce someone to People’s and they aren’t quite ready to join us in person, offer them a sneak peek.

I’m glad when we all gather together. I’m glad that we are in a place where we are all welcome, no matter who we are, or where we are on life’s journey.

Shalom,

Pastor Grace
